IS KELLY THE MAN!

That is the Question Now Agitating Police Circles-Can it be that he Murdered Mrs. Conners by Mistake?

Did he Cut the Throat of the Poor Market Woman !- This will be Answered To-Day on an Application for Writ of Habeas Corpus.

The arrest of John Kelly upon a warrant arging him with the murder of Mrs. Mary Conners, the huckster at the Poplar street narket, created a great deal of comment resterday. While the atrocity of the murder is still fresh in the minds of the public, who feel an earnest desire that the assassin should be apprehended and brought to justice, yet it is evident that Kelly is not believed to be the guilty party. He protests his innocence and so do his friends, many of whom complain so do his friends, many of whom complain that he was arrested in a strange manner and without sufficient information. Justice Quigley issued the warrant at the instance of Deputy-Constable John Pryde, and Thomas M'Cormack made affidavit to it, not knowing the party accused, but doing it at the request of the first-named officer. While this may have been informal, Justice Quigley had no intention of committing any wrong whatever, but only desired to afford necessary legal means for the arrest of a man whom he was informed had committed an atrocious crime. Deputy-Constable Pryde, after obcrime. Deputy-Constable Pryde, after obtaining the writ, secured the assistance of Captain Arata by virtue of the paper and had Kelly arrested at the Peabody hotel, where he was employed as night-watchman. He was committed to jail that night and has not been brought out for trial, but will doubtless apply for a writ of habeas corpus today and have the cause of his detention day and have the cause of his detention investigated. From what we can learn we do not see any guilt on the part of Kelly, who is a man of good character and has always conducted himself well in this community. He was formerly a member of the police force, and for a long time has been might watchman at the Peabody hotel. The police and detectives do not think Kelly guilty, for the statements and information which led to his arrest by Deputy-Constable Pryde were given to Chief Athy a short time after the murder was committed. Chief Athy and the given to Chief Athy a short time after the murder was committed. Chief Athy and the detectives investigated the report concerning Kelly, and came to the conclusion that there was no truth in it whatever. At the time of the murder Kelly was at the Peabody hotel, and when this was ascertained Chief Athy was satisfied the man had no hand in the frightful murder with which he is now. frightful murder with which he is now charged in the warrant of arrest. It seems then that Kelly's arrest was made upon the same suspicion and information that Chief Athy and the detectives investigated and asertained to be unfounded. Yesterday Kel-y's wife, known as Mrs. Higgins, was ar-ested and put in jail to await an investigation of the case in which her name is associ-ated. The public should not condemn any one until the fact of guilt has been esta lished and proven. Since writing the above we are informed that Deputy-Constable Pryde saw Justice Quigley Thursday afternoon and informed him that he knew the whereabouts of the murderer of Mrs. Conners, and asked that a warrant issue for his arrest. The applicant id not know the full name of the alleged murderer, but said his given name was Jim, and induced Deputy-Constable M Cormack to make affidavit to the warrant, which was thereupon issued. Mr. Pryde was deputized to execute the warrant. The warrant was then executed, as above stated. After the warrant was executed Mr. Pryde inserted the name "John Kelly" in the warrant, according to our informant. Yesterday morning Mrs. Kelly was also arrested upon a warrant in which her name is said to have been inmagistrate's office. Upon the presentation of the fact that there was no affidavit against Mrs. Kelly, and that she was therefore held illegally. Justice Quigley ordered her discharge, which was complied with. Mr. Kelly W. will have an examination this morning. We trust the above narration of the circum stances, as given us, will not cast imputation pon the motives of Justice Quigley and the officers whose names are associated with the arrest of Mr. Kelly. Public opinion will of course be withheld until the accused shall

STEAMBOAT PURNED.

Total Destruction by Fire of the Steamer Governor Garland, of the Memphis and Pine Bluff Mail Line.

One Cabin and Three Deck Passengers Lost-The Cargo of Six Hundred and Fifty Bales of Cotton Burned.

The Boat's Books, Papers and Valuables

Lost-The Fifth Boat Lost by the Line in Fourteen Months. Captain John Harbin, superintendent of the Memphis and Pine Bluff mail line, in this city, received the following dispatches yesterday, giving meagre but startling intelli-gence of the burning of their splendid new packet Governor Garland, on Thursday, at Red Fork, in Arkansas river, some twentyfive miles above the mouth: FIRST DISPATCH. PINE BLUFF, March 16.—Garland burned at Red Fork. Three deck and one cabin passenger lost. SECOND DISPATCH. PINE BLUFF, March 16.—Books, safe and cargo of six hundred and fifty bales cotton total loss.

THE ILL-FATED PACKET. The Garland was the finest, staunchest and best of the Memphis and Arkansas river packets. She was built last spring especially for that trade, and was commanded by Cap-tain Ed Nowland, one of the most careful and experienced commanders in that line. and experienced commanders in that line. She cost the company twenty-seven thousand dollars, was built at Pittsburg new out and out, and was insured for fifteen thousand dollars in the Enterprise, Eureka, Washington and other Cincinnati offices. Particulars of how the fire occurred are not given.

COMMENDABLE ENTERPRISE. As soon as the intelligence was received, Captain Harbin immediately chartered the Belle of Texas to go out in the place of the Garland this evening, thus surmounting the almost paralyzing obsta-cle caused by the sad accident. He also elegraphed to Pittsburg, where the ill-fated Garland was built, to have another steamer built an exact counterpart of the lost boat, and leaves for Pittsburg himself next week to close the contract for the building of the new boat at the earliest possible date. The Memphis and Pine Bluff mail-line packet company have been remarkably unfortunate during the past fourteen months, in that they LOST FIVE FIRST-CLASS PACKETS, all but the Garland having been sunk. This unusual bad luck cannot be traced to mis agement, because the officers employed in this line are noted for their skill in seaman-ship, sober, steady habits, and close attention to business. All the disasters except that of the Garland may be traced to the miserable condition which has prevailed in Arkansas river during the time mentioned. The boats lost by this company were the Fort Gibson, spirit, enterprise and energy to maintain their reputation and restore their losses. I'ruly such an institution deserves the pathy and support of our merchants and the planters within the radius of the operations of such enterprising spirits, whose labors in the effort to build up Memphis river com-merce have been fruitful of unmistakably eneficial results.

DEATH OF DR. MALLORY.

Dr. Schenck's Standard Reme dies.

The standard remedies for all diseases of the lungs are Schenck's pulmonic syrup, Schenck's seaweed tonic, and Schenck's man-drake pills, and if taken before the lungs are destroyed, a speedy cure is effected. To these three medicines Dr. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary diseases. The pulmonic syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs; nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlego... or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, the patient has rest, and the lungs begin

To enable the pulmonic syrup to do this schenck's mandrake pills and Schenck's seaweed tonic must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver. Schenck's mandrake pills act on the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the gall bladder, the bile start freely, and the liver is soon relieved. Schenck's seaweed tonic is a gentle stir lant and alterative; the alkalie of which it composed mixes with the food and prevent souring. It assists the digestion by ton up the stomach to a healthy condition, that the food and the pulmonic syrup will make good blood; then the lungs heal, and the patient will surely get well if care is taken to prevent fresh cold. All who wish to consult Dr. Schenck, either personally or by letter, can do so at his principal office, corner of Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, every Monday. Schenck's medicines are sold by all druggists throughout the country.

The Raufman Damage Suit-Statement of the Plaintiffs, who Want $1000 for Bervices.

The publication of the statement of Louis Kaufman and the views of Chief Athy rela-tive to the damage suit instituted against the above named citizen by Henry Jordan, col ored, has evoked an explanation from the par-ties who demand one thousand dollars Henry Jordan regards the Appeal's acticle as a burlesque upon himself, but declares that Kaufman promised to give him one thousand dollars if he would discover the thieves who robbed his house and secure the recover of the money. He claims to have done the n connection with other parties, and upo Kaufman's refusal to pay him the sum promised, he offered to compromise the affair by taking one hundred dollars. This, he says, Kaufman also refused to pay, and hence he instituted suit against him. Mike Butler says that Kaufman's statement that he are Jordan demanded money from him is untrue He corroborates Jordan's statement, and say that they were the first to ascertain the thieves and had them arrested upon war ants issued by a magistrate. He denies who has been said relative to the services ren-dered by the chief of police and detectives. He claims that he, Henry Jordan and Mr. brennan had the men in custody, when Chie Athy and the detectives had the latter car ried to the police office, and there ascertames a clue to the missing articles and money However, the case is to have a full and far nvestigation in the court, where the plaintiff can be given an opportunity to tell all about he affair and explain their services to a jury 3.
